

The Front Porch ~ Something to Believe In Classes

Introduction to the Bible

May 25, 5-7:30 PM

“I was overwhelmed by the organization and thoroughness of the material presented in this class. It is like nothing I have seen before. It gave me an orientation and perspective of the Bible I never had before. It allowed me to read books with a sense of how it came to be and what its main focus is: prophetic, historical or poetical. It presented a foundation for further growth. I left hungry for more.”

-Ron Simpson, class participant

Whether you have attended a Bible Study or are new to the scriptures, this two 2.5 hour overview will enable you to get a grip on the greatest story ever told. Three models of scripture will be presented with a focus on the meta-narrative of scripture laid out in five acts. This way of understand scriptures larger story enables even the beginner to experience the thrill of meaningful study. Bible reading plans for future study as well as several surprises are part of this action packed night. Rev. Nicole Reilley leads us in this study.

This class is free and open to the community. Child care available with prior arrangement, call 949-589-1502.